You are also encouraged to carefully review information provided on the dedicated Internet Airbus ESOP website www.esop.airbus.com prior to validating your purchase order.

Neither your employer nor Airbus can give you investment advice nor any guarantee as to the future price of Airbus shares which can go up and down. Securities law warning

The ESOP 2026 is addressed to Airbus group employees only. This Offer constitutes a private investment and is not subject to registration with or approval by a local authority. It is made in reliance on the exemption from publishing a prospectus provided for in Article 1 para 4 lit. b) of the EU Prospectus Regulation 2017/1129.

Eligibility

The ESOP 2026 is proposed to you because you are an employee of Airbus group.

In order to be eligible to the Offer in your country, you must meet the following conditions:

- ❖ Have an employment contract with an Airbus group entity in which Airbus holds more than 50% of share capital, and
- ❖ Having been employed by an Airbus group entity on December 31, 2025 and remain in employment through the date of delivery of purchased shares on April 2, 2026.

There is no obligation to participate in the Offer and your decision to participate or not will not have any impact on your employment with Airbus group.

Process of payment of the purchase price in your country

Payment of the purchase price for your selected Package is made by deduction from your net salary. Your employer will make the advance to Airbus SE for the total amount corresponding to your purchase price and this amount will be then reimbursed by you to your employer through payroll deductions.

If you select Packages 1 to 7, you have the choice for paying the investment amount:

- Option 1: in 3 deductions of equal amount
- Option 2: in deductions corresponding to the total available amount of your monthly salary, over a maximum of 3 months.

If you select Packages 8 or 9, only Option 2 is available.

When choosing the amount you want to invest, you must take into account the payment terms available according to the Packages and the available amount of your salary, it being understood that the repayment period cannot be longer than 3 months.

By choosing Option 2, you ask to deduct from your salary the maximum amount available after mandatory deductions (such as social security contributions and taxes), until the purchase price is paid in full, over a maximum period of 3 months. This choice may imply a significant reduction in the amount of salary that will actually be paid-out to you during this period. Make sure you have personal funds for your day-to-day expenses and recurring withdrawals and fund your bank account accordingly.

An illustration of the operation of the two mechanisms is attached in the Appendix.

You should consider the amount of your monthly salary when you decide upon the Package that you are purchasing and the Option that you select for the payment.

If you cease employment with your Airbus employer before full repayment of your ESOP debt, the outstanding balance will become immediately due. Consequently, Airbus or your former employing entity may take all appropriate actions to recover the purchase price of the Package, including deduction of the outstanding amount from your last pay. Please read the Plan Rules for procedures that Airbus may apply in case of default of payment.

We draw your attention to the Plan rules provisions applicable in cases where the payment option you selected is not appropriate for payment of your investment amount in timely manner. Please note that payment issues arising during the reimbursement period may lead to restrictions on future investment possibilities in ESOP.

Exchange rate

Although you will pay your subscription amount in Swedish Krona, the purchase price of Airbus Shares is set in Euros. The amount of the purchase price of your Package will be converted in Euros at the exchange rate applicable on February 18, 2026.

This exchange rate will be maintained until the date of delivery of shares to you but not thereafter.

Throughout the life of your investment, the value of your investment will be subject to fluctuations of the exchange rate between the Euro and the Swedish Krona. As a result, if the value of the Euro strengthens relative to the Swedish Krona, the value of your shares expressed in Swedish Krona will increase. Conversely, if the value of the Euro weakens relative to the Swedish Krona, the value of your shares expressed in Swedish Krona will decrease.

Custody of your Shares

Shares acquired in the ESOP 2026 will be delivered in your individual securities account maintained by Société Générale Securities Services.

Société Générale Securities Services will manage your share account and execute your sale requests after the end of the mandatory holding period.

Dividends, if any are voted by Airbus Annual General Shareholders Meeting, may be paid to you on the bank account indicated to Société Générale Securities Services or, may be transferred to you through your employer.

Illustration

This scheme is an illustration only and is not intended to predict the market value of the Airbus Share in the future.

IMPORTANT

Share price evolution on the stock market is unpredictable. When making your decision please remember that the price of Airbus shares can go up or down. Airbus cannot provide you with any financial/tax advice. If you are in any doubt about whether to participate in the 2026 ESOP you should speak to an independent financial/tax advisor.

1. Taxation at the time of acquisition of Airbus shares

In the ESOP 2026, you select a Package which allows you to acquire a number of Airbus shares (Acquisition Shares) and additional Airbus shares (Matching Shares) allocated for free.

- You make a taxable benefit corresponding to the difference between the value of all shares delivered to you (Acquisition Shares and Matching Shares) and the purchase price that you paid:

$$\text{Taxable benefit} = \text{market value of the share} \times \text{total number of shares received} - \text{price you paid for the package}$$

For tax purposes, the market value is the lowest listed price of Airbus SE share on the last day of the subscription period.

This benefit is considered employment income and subject to tax at progressive rates currently ranging from 32% to 52% (at 32% local tax rate). Social security contributions (7% on annual income up to SEK 672,800 for 2026, i.e., a maximum of SEK 47,100) are included in the tax rates.

You are responsible for reporting the taxable acquisition gain in your Swedish tax return in the year following the year in which the shares were acquired. As your employer has an obligation to report the employment income to the Swedish Tax Agency, on the monthly employer tax return, the gain should be pre-printed in your tax return. You will, however, be responsible for checking that the information has been reported in your tax return and thereby to the Swedish Tax Agency.

The amount of the tax and social security contributions owed by you will be withheld by your employer from your salary during the month following the purchase of the shares. Any difference between the tax withheld and the final amount of tax due will be settled as residual tax or a tax refund.

- Additionally, if the payment of your investment amount extends beyond a period of one month, you benefit from a facility offered by your employer.

Such benefit should be taxable as an interest free loan. The taxable amount will be taxed as employment income calculated by applying a standard public interest rate (currently ~2.7%) plus 1.5% on the amount of your advance.

Your employer will proceed with tax withholding from your salary.

2. Taxation during the holding of your Airbus shares

You are required to hold your shares for a period of at least three years. As long as you continue to hold your Airbus shares, you will be taxable with respect to dividends if any are distributed by Airbus SE.

Dividends will be subject to a dividend withholding tax in the Netherlands and will then be taxable in your country.

a. Taxation of dividends in the Netherlands

Under Dutch domestic law, dividends paid by Airbus will be subject to a withholding tax in the Netherlands at the time the dividend is declared by the general meeting of shareholders. The rate of the Dutch dividend withholding tax is 15%.

A supporting document (Tax Voucher) evidencing the payment of Dutch withholding tax is made available each year on SHARINBOX –Société Générale website.

b. Taxation of dividends in Sweden

Under Swedish individual income tax law, dividends are taxed at the flat rate of 30%.

A tax credit should be available for the withholding tax paid in the Netherlands from tax on capital income.

You must declare the dividend income on your annual Swedish tax return to be filed.

3. Taxation at sale of your Airbus shares

You will not be able to sell or transfer the shares acquired in the ESOP 2026 for a period of three years. In practice, you will be able to sell your shares from April 3, 2029. The end of the holding period is not a taxable event.

Taxation will take place at the time of sale of your shares, if you make a capital gain.

In case of capital loss, such losses may be offset (in whole or in part) against other capital income during the year. Any remaining capital losses are deductible at 70% in the capital income category. A deficit in the capital income category will result in a tax reduction (from e.g. tax on employment income) of 30% on the deficits up to SEK 100,000 and a reduction of 21% on the portion of the deficits exceeding SEK 100,000.

The capital gain is equal to the difference between the gross sale proceeds on the date of the sale and the cost basis of the shares minus the transaction costs (e.g. broker's fees).

$$\text{Taxable benefit} = \text{sale proceeds} - (\text{the price you paid for the shares} + \text{the taxable amount for the discount}) - \text{broker's commissions}$$

The capital gain is taxed at the flat rate of 30%.

You are responsible for reporting any capital gain or loss in your Swedish tax return.

You are responsible for paying this capital gain tax.
